The importance of architectural historic layering

“The nation’s historic buildings, have much to tell us about the ordinary lives of past generations – how people of all classes and creeds lived and worked, worshipped and spent their leisure time. We can also learn from them how buildings were constructed and adorned, the traditions they embodied and the aspirations they expressed. They are a living record of our social, economic and artistic history, as well as being powerful contributors to our sense of place and to feelings of local, regional and national identity”.
